

Faculty Fellow Profile - 2012

Guodong Zheng (Ted)

Mr. Zheng has an English name: Ted, who was the first to receive Chu Family Faculty Scholarship in 2012. He instructs subjects of public administration and political science at School of Political Science and Public Administration, Shandong University. His academic interest covers local government, public servant systems and Taiwan issue. He benefited a lot from the classes where he sat in as a listener at Western. He also enjoyed conducting research on local municipality (The City of London). He appreciated the opportunities this experience gave and thanks the Chu Family and the Local Government Program at Western for it.

He got his Ph.D. at School of International Studies, Peking University in 2003, studying the international influence on the political vicissitude in the socialist countries in the Eastern Europe since World War II.

