COURSE DESCRIPTION

Drawing upon theories and research findings in public administration and management, this course examines administrative approaches, issues and debates arising in local governments in a changing environment. Students will learn how the complex and unstable environment of public sector organizations produces both challenges and opportunities for public sector managers, and will work through material that requires them to apply insights from management and public administration literature to real-world local government settings.

METHODS

The course will be taught online, using both synchronous and asynchronous learning methods. The course will consist of a combination of mini video lectures, small and large group discussion, activities, case studies, and guest speakers. Students will be expected to be able to discuss the assigned readings for each of the topics.

Each class will start with a synchronous component at 4:30 pm. Details about how to access this session are provided below.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Seminar: Selected Topics

Weight: 25%

Weeks 3, 4, 7, 8, and 9 of this course will include a 40 minute seminar, each of which will be led by a different group of students. These seminars will provide an opportunity to explore other thought leaders and current topics in the area of management. Students will participate in the development and presentation of one seminar over the course. These seminars are designed to stimulate discussion and highlight points/issues related to the topic, using practical examples. A list of potential seminar topics will be distributed in the first class. The following dates will include a seminar:

January 28	March 4	March 18
February 4	March 11

2. Assignment #2: Henry Mintzberg's Approach to Management

Weight: 25%

Students will complete a provided tracking sheet to document their tasks or the tasks of an assigned manager over the course of one day. Students will then complete a brief critical analysis of their observations of their day/tasks based on Mintzberg's approach to management. The submission should include the following:

1. The completed tracking sheet, documenting tasks for one day
2. A critical analysis of the completed tracking sheet, using Mintzberg's theories (for example: approaches to management, and managing on the edges), including a summary of findings

The page length of the submission should not exceed 750 words (word-processed and double-spaced). The completed tracking sheet should be included as an attachment to the submission (it will not be included in the 750 word paper limit).

Due Date: Thursday, February 18, 2021 (via email)

3. Research Paper: Case in Municipal Management

Weight: 35%

Students must pick a municipal case and analyze what went right and what went wrong and why for the case chosen. Students should make use of class reading material as much as possible in their analysis and the major paper should demonstrate the student's ability to apply the knowledge learned in the class. The page length for the major paper should not exceed 3,000 words (word-processed and double-spaced).

Due Date: Monday, April 19, 2021 (via email)

4. Contributions to Learning

Weight: 15%

Students are assessed on their continuous contributions to learning which includes his/her/their meaningful contribution to learning in class exercises and discussions. Drawing from the readings is of high value, applications and examples are also welcome.

Policy on Late Assignments

Late assignments will receive a 2% per day deduction, including weekends, up to a maximum of seven days, after which assignments will not be accepted and a grade of zero will be assigned, unless documentation for accommodation has been provided in advance. All work is due via email (jkirkha@uwo.ca or jenkirkham02@gmail.com), unless otherwise specified. In general, the late penalty can be wholly or partially waived only due to medical or family emergencies.
